

Digitnest is seeking interns in accounting

Digitnest is a Kosovar company that provides accounting services to foreign firms based in Europe. In the expansion phase, the company is looking for talented and enthusiastic staff. During the apprenticeship phase, potential employees will be trained in accounting under foreign legislation and accounting practices. After the apprenticeship, a prospective candidate will be offered lucrative prospect for long term contract and carrier.

Qualifications and skills:

- Good knowledge of accounting and tax principles
- Qualification as accounting technician at SCAAK is preferred
- Good knowledge of English is precondition and Swedish would be desired.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office applications
- Knowledge of any accounting software is an advantage
- Excellent analytical skills

Individuals with a good knowledge of accounting, English, Swedish and other languages should contact us to undergo potential testing and engagement.

Application deadline until 15.11.2019

All interested parties should send their CVs with a Motivation Letter in English to email: digitnestks@gmail.com